Men Whom He Swore in Killed the Colored Mine Workers at Righttime in Their Beds—Women Who Pleaded With Assassins Were Told to Take Care of Themselves.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) March 3.— The official report of Chris Eyans, who was sent to the West Virginia coal fields to investigate the killing of colored miners at Atkinsville, has been received at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers.

The report says that Gen. St. Clair, who is the attories for the coal companies, created an agitation to have the men arrested and taken to Charleston, and that immediately afterward arrangements were made with the United States Marshal, by the mine workers' officials to give bond for all whe were arrested, but that later, on account of agitation created by Deputy Marshal Cunningham, the agreement entered into with the marshal was broken and Cunningham was sent to arrest the men.

neputy large and cumings an agreement entered into with the marshal was broken and Cunningham was sent to arrest the men.

According to the report, there was great feeling against Cunningham. The men decided not to allow him to arrest them, and he was driven away. Evans says that he sent a telegram to the men to submit quietly, but that the coal companies, who own all of the telegraph and telephone lines connecting with the town, refused to deliver it, and before he could get any message to the men, Cunningham and his deputies, who, he said, were the report characters he could collect, went to the town a second time and killed the miners in the night time in their beds.

"We visited another house, where Joseph Hiser lay in bed mortally wounded, having been shot through the window as he was stooping to put on his trousers, after getting out of bed. Hiser lived with his sister, and she made the statement at the inquest that she pleaded with those shooting hou to kill her children, and it reply Cumingham said: Women and thirdren must take care of themselves. In no instance could we find where these people had been to surrender, until after the deputies had commenced to shoot at the occupants of the houses named.

"We next went to the house of Lucian Lawson, who was considered mortally wounded. I am led to understand that after the shooting referred to, this man, with others, returned the fire of the posse, and this is the only instance where any attempt was made to return fire on the port of the miners. During the shooting, in many instances the men and women pleaded with the men outside to have mercy on them, but their cries were met with derision and curses. Our investigation proves conclusively that no effort had been made to shoot or resist, except in the one case mentioned, but that all would have been too glad to have surrendered. It is still a question how Arisona and New Mexico will fare. The bill will again be brought up in the House, and that body has always been favorable to the admission of all three Territories. Senator Quny is particularly desirous that the two Southern Territories shall be admitted, and the political status of his case will be much improved if he insists on Republican Senators going on record on the eve of a Presidential campaign. He will very likely be in a stronger position in the next Congress than he was in the last. Western sentiment is favorable to admission of all three Territories, and Quay's talk about 'broken platform piedges' will have new significance just before the convention meets, which is to draft a new platform. If the bill passes the House, it will take a good deal of courage for Republican Senators to hold it up.

Backing a Bill. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Chronicle's Sacramento special says the report of the Assembly committee which investigated San Quentin and Folsom prisons gated San Quentin and Folsom prisons will be the most startling and important matter which has come before this session of the Legislature. The report will go into the organization and management of the prisons, and after telling of such horrors as few have supposed could exist in a civilized land, even in penal institutions, will make recommendations of greatly and the supposed could be supposed to the supposed could exist in a civilized land, even in penal institutions, will make recommendations of greatly and the supposed could be supposed to the su to the study of the institutions and to forming plans for their betterment.

A thing to be scored is the way the directors use their positions to give jobs to friends. Overseer C. W. Kyle of Folsom, who was appointed at the request of Gov. Gage, and Commissary Fitzgerald, brother of the director, who relied upon their pulls to save them, openly defied Warden Wilkinson, to the demoralization of disciplina. It will be suggested that a director who advises the appointment of anyone to a place in a prison should be removed, and that the Governor making such recommendation shall be presumed to have violated the oath of office. Civil service is named as the means of obtaining proper employes and the Governor should not interfere in the appointment of wardens. The report will declare unnatural vice prevalent to an amaxing extent, and ditions of the prison will be rated as worse than those of most prisons in the United States.

One reason for the terrible state of affairs is that the employés are friends of men in power, who thus pay pollifical debts, and they have not real interest in the work, and no fitness for it. It will be found that a large proportion of the prisoners are second-termers, and it will be suggested all first-termers be sent to San Quentin and second-termers to Folsom, so that the first-termers may be kept from contact with the more hardened. The building of many more cells and the separation of prisoners will be urged as imperative. The majority will recommend that the use of the straight-jacket be not abolished, as there is not adequate punishment to take its place, but that its use be safeguarded so as to do away with the present horrible circumstances for punishment. The whole report will be full of surprising facts and recommendations of drastic corrective measures. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ONDON, March 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Bible seems to be the chief topic of public interest at the present moment, both in Great Britain and Germany, and the public press of both countries devotes more space to this than to any other subject. London this week witnessed a Jewish Lord Mayor presiding at the celebration of the one hundredth year of the British and Foreign Bible Society, at which Prime Minister Balfour was the principal society, to whose work he wished every success.

Some stupendsus figures were quoted during the past century. The Bible is now circulated in 400 languages and been distributed. There remain, however, the president declared, 550,000,000 to the one hundredth year of the British and Foreign Bible Society, at which Prime Minister Balfour was the principal society.

was a plea for subordination of sectarianism.

"Living here in Great Britain, which is too much absorbed with its own religious differences, is it not something." he asked, "to be able to meet in a cause intimately connected with religion, but not in any sense depending upon sectarian differences, which so frequently divide us? It must increase charity, and it must widen the outlet. There is always danger, whether in politics, literature or religion, that those who live in a narrow circle will take a parochial view. There is nothing parochial about this society. When we bring to our imagination the variety of races, the variety of civilizations and the variety of cultures with which society is concerned, then, if that prospect does not make us wholly forget the points of difference between us, they, at all events, will enable us to put those differences in the right perspective."

LOS ANGELES, March 1, 1902.—
[To the Editor of The Times:] Please explain why a necessary thing is called a "social efil." Chief Elton said to Carrie Nation: "The crib district is a necessity." Now, if it is as he said, he, being a man, ought to know, and ought to know what he is talking about, too. Why is a "necessity" a "social evil?" I defy anyone to bring forward one thing in life that is a necessity and make it a social evil; one is fibreign to the other. A necessity, or a necessary thing, is something that saves life; so if the crib district is a necessity, it is not a social evil, but rather a life-saving station or institution.

A man will ruins girls and leave them to their fate; he has not a thought of what becomes of them after he gets through with them. The girl is forced to become an outcast, a harlot, and more often a murderer, for she-kills the child and afterward herself. He who was the cause of herruin is taken into society and caressed and fondied. What is the difference between the two curs? None whatever? Only one has four legs, the other two. And woman can't see that it is she, herself, that is making and keeping the so-called abandoned women in their slatery because of her condemnation of the fallen girl, while the "gentleman" who ruined her goes scot free; for no one ever heard of a fallen man. He don't fall; it was a necessity; she is used as a necessity to save life, but she alone fis the sinner. God help her, for no one else does.

do-I-condemn-thee" spirit is the one that lifts from degradation and sin, not questioning how they got there. When man finds the God in him, he will not demand from his sister that which will be her ruin.

Andres Almares, processor of chemistry in the National Preparatory College, and an analysis was made also by the Millitary Academy, Chapel Tepic, and other governmental Institutions. These show the oil to be 56% per cent. pure, as against 70 per cent., the highest grade of purity found heretofore in any natural mineral oil well. It is therefore considered the most remarkable find of oil known to science. It is believed by experts here that this oil is seepage from an inexhaustible reservoir not far below the present depth of drilling, or 200 meters. Thousands are visiting the gusher, which is exciting great interest.

Tomorrow, De la Bar commences the work of drilling anew to reach what he claims is a pure deposit of eil, without water. Coincident with the appearance of the gusher is the arrival today or tomorrow of young Rockefeller and party, coming to Mexico on a trip of combined pleasure, health and business.

Americans Creating Jealousy Among the English by Monopoliting Markets to the Disadvantage of Home Factors. [BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, March 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The development of American trade in the British colonies is watched with jealous eye by many people in this country. Complaints are raised that Americans have of late monopolited the markets of Maita for flour 2nd oil, to the disadvantage of British trade. Formerly these articles reached Maita from London, Liverpool and Huil, but the cheaper prices quoted from New York have ousted British goods. This result is attributed to the direct service inaugurated last year by the Deutsche Levant and Hamburg-American lines.

The outlook in connection with Canadian trade is an engrossing subject of discussion in Bristol. At an early date the Canadian Pacific Railway will, it is stated, open a branch office there, and it is understood the Grand Trunk

LOS ANGELES, March 7.—(To the Editor of The Times:) Mayor Snyder says that good beme influence will prevent girls being procured and sold into houses of Ill-tame and held as slaves?

The poor little Frerch girl that was rescued, bears every evidence of having been reared by Christian parents, but that did not prevent her being procured and held as a slave for six months. And she is suffering now from that terrible disease, worse than jeprosy, God's penalty for that awful sin that she was compelled, against ber will, to commit.

God pity the young men who have ignorantly gone to a house of Ill-fame and for the remainder of life have suffered from that terrible disease, that no human tongue can describe, God's penalty for that aparticular sin, and the committed of the process of the form of the remainder of life have suffered from that terrible disease, that no human tongue can describe, God's penalty for that aparticular sin, and the committed that t

A leading spirit in having the petition circulated and granted he Council, was A. Q. St. George, where some council, the relations between further the proval of the dairy by order of the ouncil, the relations between Butterled and St. George are strained. Now it happens that St. George him if owns a cow which he has parted for the last four years, on a visit lot adjacent to his own premise seterday. Butterfield sought to eve the score by trying to compel 8 corps to remove his cow from the cant lot, on the ground that the year of the cow was maintaining disance and violating the cow ordance by keeping the bovine there.

Butterfield descended upon St. George like the dragon who gave the George like the dragon who gave the original St. George so much trouble, and warned him to remove the animal or he would have the pound-keeper do the removing for him. St. George, sughed the suggestion to scern, so, Butterfield sent for the pound-keeper and told him his troubles. The pound-keeper waited on St. George, viewed the cow and the situation and decided that he had no authority to act.

As soon as the pound man departed St. George, who is a patriotic individual, hoisted the Stars and Stripes over his cow pasture to bid defiance to his belilgerent neighbor, and show that he intended to hold the fort and keep his faithful milk-giver on the grass at all hazards. Butterfield was away attending to his milking when the flag-raising took place, but there was no lack of interested spectators. The neighbors who are all more or less interested in the cow war, knew what it meant when Old Glory was flung to the breeze over old Bossy who was quiletly chewing her cud in apparent wonderment of the meaning of the ceremony. It is probably the first time on record that the flag has been raised in honor of a cow.

Butterfield could not conceal his chaptin when he returned from his milking and saw that the pound-keeper had falled to act. That flaunting flag may act on Butterfield's Jersey bull, and control to the control of the meeting of the directors of the Los Angeles ball club was held and radical measures were taken.

It was decided, first of all, to request the Pacific Const League directors to abolish the ball schedule that has been adopted and published. This is to be done so as to be able to have the clubs play in this city whenever the opposition clubs play here, and thus pit one league against the other. In explanation of this move, it should be said that the local opposition club intended to play here during the absence in the North of Moriey's club, in order to show that the opposition people were not going into the business to work out any revenge on Moriey, as agents or friends of Lucas or the Northwest League. Moriey has been in correspondence with Harris concerning this question of paralleling the local dates of the opposition club, and as the question affects Moriey's club hit own judgment, and that the other clubs up North would stand by him. Another step taken last night by the directors was an agreement to assess themselves to the full value of their stock, in order to have ready money in the treasury to conduct the fight with. As the local club is capitalised for $10,000 available whenever necessary to carry on the fight, Morley says the Under public ownership it would be possible to devote profits to betterment of service, reduction of rates and increase of wages. Under private ownership profits go mainly to the increase of dividends. Economy is good enough to talk about, but the public cares little for economy if it gives nothing in return.
